

RUDOLPH E. (RUDY) MANCKE

Adjunct Faculty
School of the Environment
University of South Carolina
Columbia, South Carolina

Married, two children

Education

Undergraduate, Wofford College, Phi Beta Kappa, B.S. 1967
Graduate, University of South Carolina, Zoology, 1967-1969
Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters, College of Charleston, 1990
Honorary Doctor of Science, Wofford College, 1992
Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters, Winthrop College, 1993
Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters, Coker College, 1998
Honorary Doctor of Science, Presbyterian College, 1999
Honorary Doctor of Science, Clemson University, 2007

Experience

- United States Army, Germany, 1969-1972
- Teacher, Spartanburg High School, Biology and Geology, 1972-1975
- Curator of Natural History, South Carolina State Museum, 1975-1985
- Founder of SCAN (South Carolina Association of Naturalists), 1976 to present
- NatureScene Series: South Carolina Educational Television, 1978 to present
- Teacher: Workshops/Lesson Plans for Instructional Television, 1978 to present
- Director of Science and Nature Programming, South Carolina Educational Television, 1985-2002
- Distinguished Lecturer in Natural History, University of South Carolina, School of the Environment, 2002 to 2008
- Adjunct Faculty, University of South Carolina, School of the Environment, 2009-present

Awards

Southern Educational Communications Association Award for NatureScene, 1980 and 1982
Environmental Education Association Award for NatureScene, 1982
Special Achievement Award, National Wildlife Federation, 1987
Daughters of the American Revolution Medal of Honor, 1989
Phi Delta Kappa Friend of Education Award, 1990
Governor's Award for Excellence in Science, 1991
South Carolina Environmental Awareness Award, 1992
Order of the Palmetto, 1993
Margaret Douglas Award, The Garden Club of America, 1995
South Carolina Hall of Science and Technology Inductee, 1997
Best Friend of Libraries, 1998
Lucy Hampton Bostick Award, Richland County Library, 1999
Charles H. Townes Award, 2000
S.C. Broadcasters Association Masters Award, 2001
William C. Everhart Award, 2001
Regional Director's Conservation Award, US Fish and Wildlife Service, 2003